From Tada Railway Station - The Institute is at a driving distance of 5.5 km; about 10 mins from Tada Railway Station.

Bus to IIIT Sri City

From Madhavaram, Chennai Bus Station (MMBT: Madhavaram Chennai Mofussil Bus Terminus) – The Institute is at a distance of 60 Kms from MMBT Bus station, Chennai. There are plenty of buses to Tada from Chennai. These include Bus No: 114, 200 and buses to Nellore and Venkatagiri which have a stopover at Tada.

Trains to IIIT Sri City

Tada: From Chennai central, Tada is the closest railway station to Sri City. There are local trains running almost every hour to and from Chennai Central to Tada Railway Station. Travel time by Chennai Local Train to Tada is 1.40 minutes.

Sullurpeta: Reaching Sullurpeta by a train would be the easiest way to reach us. Sullurpeta is on the Vijayawada-Chennai line. Most express trains from Kolkata, New Delhi & Hyderabad stop here. From the railway station one can take an auto or APSRTC bus to reach Sri City.

Rent a Car

Sri City is exactly 70 Kms from Chennai Koyambedu Bus Station (CMBT -Chennai Mofussil Bus Terminus). The approximate return Cab/Taxi fare from Chennai would be Etios/Swift Dzire (4 people) Rs.3000/- and Innova (6 people) Rs.4500/-.

Bus

Sri City has three major roads along its boundaries:

The National Highway 16 (part of the Golden Quadrilateral Road Network which connects the 4 major metros of Chennai, Kolkata, Delhi and Mumbai) on the eastern side.

The Tada–Tirupati State Highway on the northern boundary

The Kadur–Satyavedu –Tiruvallur–Sriperumbudur roads along the western boundary.

Railways:

Sri City is well-connected through a broad-gauge railway line that links the metro cities of India. Sri City lies between the Tada station on the north and Arambakkam station on the south for suburban services.

Express trains connecting Chennai, Bangalore, Hyderabad, Kolkata and Delhi stop at Sullurpeta which is 12 km north of Sri City. Trains from Mumbai halt at Renigunta, a major rail junction west of Sri City.

Air

Chennai International Airport is a 90 minute drive from Sri City. It is the main air transport hub for South India, currently handling over 14 million passengers and serving 38 airlines. It is also India's most important air cargo hub after Mumbai, handling over 300,000 tonnes of cargo annually. The international cargo handling facilities at Chennai have a turnaround time of 24 hours.

Tirupati International Airport is 75 km away from Sri City. Currently, this airport handles over 240,000 domestic passengers and international cargo. It is being developed into an international passenger hub

The AP Government has plans to develop mini airports in each district of the state that will further enhance the connectivity to Sri City.

B. Hostel Related:

Hostel rooms are equipped with cot, chair, study table and almirah. Other daily essentials are to be arranged by the respective student.

Note: for the convenience of the students, vendors will be allowed to sell beds/pillows etc in the vicinity of the hostel. There is a supermarket with-in 1 km radius, for the purchasing daily essentials.
